Hello,

Here are some more templates to practice Hebrew. As I mentioned in “Hebrew Copybook I” those are simple templates that you can use to practice the Hebrew Vowel System, learn vocabulary, and with little ones you can start by using the Answer Key Pages to memorize Bible Verses.

In this booklet I am adding charts of the Hebrew Alphabet and the Vowel’s Mark. I suggest that you print and laminate these cards, give to your children while they are doing the exercises. In the process of practicing transliteration, they will depend less and less on the cards until they are able to read and transliterate Hebrew with much facility.

If you want to prepare your own templates, the next sites can be very helpful:

If you are planning to include Hebrew in your homeschooling experience, I will recommend you to start with the next resources:

For the young children:
